

EDITORIAL

Gandhi Jayanti is a national festival celebrated in India to mark the birth anniversary of Mohandas Karamchand Gandhi. It is celebrated annually on 2nd October, and it is one of the three national holidays of India.

The Nation is gearing up to offer Karyanjali as a Shraddhanjali (Tribute) to Mahatma Gandhi and Kasturba Gandhi on their 150th Birth Anniversary. Gandhi's lessons are relevant in every policy of the country such as Swachh Bharat, rights of women and children, and of civil liberties of small and disadvantaged groups, health and well-being of the Indian farmer and the Indian village.

We are extremely grateful to all our valued contributors for supporting our intellectual journey. It's our privilege to present before you, this 30th issue of our online journal "Episteme" that covers nine nations, including India.

Articles and research papers of the issue focuses on current trends in science and technology other than management, literary, etc. Enchanting poems, book reviews and short stories from well-known authors are attraction for the readers.

At the end, we take this opportunity to personally thank all those who have open heartedly extended their cooperation by accepting our invitation to be on the revamped board of advisors

Episteme: an online interdisciplinary, multidisciplinary & multi-cultural journal

Bharat College of Arts and Commerce, Badlapur, MMR, India

Volume 8, Issue 2

September 2019

and senior editors along with their valued contributions. We are thankful to our Patron and Management of the college for their continuous support.

We are happy to announce that our next issue will have special highlight on ideologies of Mahatma Gandhi, Father of our nation to increase awareness about Gandhiji nationally as well as globally.

“Let us all follow the path of truth and wisdom and pay homage to our Father of Nation!”

Happy Reading!

Ms. Neetu Kapoor