

LIFE GOES ON!

By Rida E. Fatima

I know for sure that I'm not done

I know exactly where I've run

I know forsaken is the street

I know mistaken is this feat

Yet all i know may be just a lie,

a scam, a shame, a feint cry

What if I'm looking through tainted glass

Just an illusion, a deceitful mass

What if my heart was made to bend....

My love to cry, my faith to end

What if I'm of use no more

Tormented to death, a living soul yet deep inside i still am sure that i have loved you...

from my heart's core

So, How can I give up so soon

Behold O PEOPLE! My aims the moon

So pick up those shovels n reopen the mills

For we have thousands of debts in bills...

I believe in success, I don't despair!

If challenge united, the calamity will pass...

We'll start a new as civilized class

So ditch those egos n bury the hatchet

This opportunity is mine I shall catch it...

Stress not over What water has washed away....

Look forward to tomorrow, re-live from this day!!!

Bio

Rida E Fatima is 21 years old. She is currently studying at University of Management and Technology, Lahore. She is pursuing her career in advance physics. She loves to write blogs and articles. She adores reading and writing.

She can be contacted at fatimarida471@gmail.com