

A LOVE

By Mohira Suyunova

I saw an ailment of the life

Into its eyes

Since then,

I lost my pleasure

And this an ailment

Walked to move

From eye to the eye

From word to the word

From year to the year

As a stranger –

It was a Love

Bio:

Mohira Suyunova is editor of “Eastern World” newspaper in Karshi, Uzbekistan. She is also teaching students at 11th School in Karshi for Uzbek language and literature.

Her several articles and poems published in local newspapers and magazines. She is working on to publish her first poetry collection.