

EDITORIAL

It gives us great pleasure in presenting the 16th issue of Episteme featuring writings from 11 nations. As usual, this is again a feature-rich collection of stimulating content from various disciplines like commerce, management, literature, fine arts and economics.

The current issue has the special features like the Uzbek poetry, Why do I write? And spotlight on globally-known artist-surgeon Amitabh Mitra from South Africa. Photo feature on Padua, Italy adds colors and vibrancy to the e-zine.

A total of 41 works from our esteemed patrons.

We remain grateful to all our contributors, management and Dr. Sunil Sharma, principal and patron. This also gives me opportunity to invite your contributions for the next issue in the New Year.

Happy New Year in advance. Enjoy Reading.....
