

Gloom

By Sunil Sharma and Jaydeep Sarangi

Abrupt rains
Enhance the gloom of
The winter night
For the old man,
Waiting silently,
While the rest of the Family parties noisily
Along with close friends
In the big living-room.

*Difficult it is to leave
The land of bread, once it is fixed to
My name, my words and my poems
Life's clock tickles fast
In a morning of smoke and dust
I take them along
In a metro heart
Which bleeds
In smoke and disgust
Where man builds up wall against wall.*
