

Far away friend

Iulia Gherghei

change your perspective!
climb up on the cloud that crosses your sky see how less important is your shadow swallowed by the forgetfulness casted upon you by the time's tide

Up there, far away friend you'll taste the fragrance of solitude you'll learn to love us you'll find your destiny melted in ours to serve others will no longer humiliate you but being humble will make you happy forget your ego then let it freeze on that passing cloud step beside me
be my loving neighbor!
