

MY TRANSCRIPT AND OTHER POEMS

By Anca Mihaela Bruma

My Life was crafted by the same mystic edict!...
Unbearable lightness and shadows of awe made me an addict...
Burning the letters of My Name, it was the divine verdict,...
So, lucid volts of eccentricity could not contradict!...

Lost in dissociation, I needed My Life to decrypt,
Writing a blue pamphlet, it sounded like a prescript,
I resurfaced my apocrypha as the only way to exit...
And another lifetime was added for me to rescript!...

My smile was measured against the sunrise like a transcript
And silence fell in raindrops, smelling like an eucalypt,
Chanting in the shades of a star, it felt like a delict,
A transparent sense of worth made me feel equipped!

Mature circumstances demanded to write my manuscript,
Practicing arpeggios, it was my only way how to depict,
With white spaces and forgotten dreams, it was my script...
Your Name sounded like My Name!... That is my Postscript!

SATORI'S DANCE

This is the dance of your Silence...

a dance between compliance and defiance...

This is the story of dreams entwined

and for you it was designed...

This is your last story,

of a Satori...

But where are those blazes of glory?...

RETROSPECTION...

When timeline expires

sensual sins

curve my eyes inside...

My story?!... still trapped

in this electric silence

as I lost the winter

from your letter!...

Left wondering

suburbs of my soul,

bittersweet horizons

chant my name

with the ambivalence

of a dervish whisper...

Your shadows....

lost the punctuated rhythm

and curved my space
beneath your breath.

Do you know?
You left your infinity
sculptured on my skin!...

YOUR LYRICAL BEING

Your Nouns and Verbs
fell on the floor
in the attempt to create... a fragment of You...

I gathered them
in a box of spells and incantations, summoning music notes
to recreate your Lyrical Being!
